PREFACE.

In offering this collection of Mr. T. F. Nealis of Philadelphia, I take pleasure in greeting my old Numismatic friends, whom I feel confident will not require any assurance from me that the articles in this sale are correctly described and condition properly stated. Mr. Nealis was a versatile collector and as will be seen by perusing the Catalogue, was interested in almost every thing that was worth preserving as a curiosity, and his only object in disposing of his collection was, that he found it interfered with his business.

Many interesting coins and other articles will be noticed and attention is particularly directed to the uncirculated Massachusetts and New Jersey cents, the numerous varieties of United States cents, the rare $3000 and $2000 United States Bank Notes, etc. All bids entrusted to my care will be properly executed and goods purchased will be promptly forwarded. Priced catalogues of the sale will be furnished at 50 cents each. Hoping to receive the generous support of the Numismatic fraternity, I am

Yours respectfully,

JOHN W. HASELTINE,

29 So. 17th Street,

Philadelphia.

AMERICAN COLONIAL AND EARLY STATE COINS.

[Attention is directed to Nos. 130, 131 and 132, which, in connection with the New Jersey cents Nos. 200, 203 and 204. Mr. Nealis was offered and refused $25 (Twenty-five) each, they are probably unsurpassed for beauty and preservation.

- 123½ 1737, Granby or Higley, three pence, obv., Deer, Rev. broad axe, date, Deer, Broad axe and III. legible. The legend mostly indistinct, a few small pin holes. Has the appearance of having been in a fire, which makes it look somewhat like a cast. I believe it to be genuine, but do not guarantee it.
- 124 1722, Rosa Americana twopence, rose uncrowned, very good.
- 125 1722, Rosa Americana penny, rose uncrowned, fine.
- 126 1722-1723, The same, varieties, poor to fair, 3 pieces.
- 127 — The same, dates not visible, poor, 2 pieces.

- 129 1767, Louisiana, Counterstamped "R. F.," fair.

- 130 1788, MASSACHUSETTS cent, close date, (1 and 7 very close) uncirculated, beautiful light olive color, with an iridescent tinge, and showing traces of original color, very rare in this condition.
- 131 1788, The same, uncirculated, light olive color, a companion to the preceding, also a beautiful piece and very rare.
- 132 1788, The same, wider irregular date, crossed "SS" in Massachusetts, making them look like 88. A flaw in planchet on obverse running from Indians' tunic past the last "H" in wealth, uncirculated, light olive, rare.
- 133 1788, The same, very wide date, barely circulated, almost as handsome as the preceding three, light brown.
- 134 1788, The same, wide and close dates, very good, 2 pieces.
- 135 1788, The same, fair, 3 pieces.
- 136 1788, MASSACHUSETTS half cent, good, scarce.
- 137 1785, IMMUNE COLUMBIA, Vermont, very poor, but just enough visible to determine the piece. Very rare.
- 138 1785, "VERMONT. RES. PUBLICA." Very good, everything visible and distinct, which is unusual for this piece. Rare.
- 139 1785, The same, barely fair, but mostly visible.
- 140 1786, VERMONTENSIVM, obv., fair; rev., poor; scarce.
- 141 1786, The same, in many respects better than the preceding. Legend and date all visible. *
- 142 1786, VERMON AUCTORI, head to left, about good but corroded.
- 143 1787, The same, head to right, poor.
- 144 1788, The same, uncirculated, light olive, weak impression in centre, slight defect on edge of planchet.
- 145 1788, The same, poor to fair, but dates visible, 8 pieces.
- 146 1787, NOVA EBORAC (New York cent), rev., Liberty seated facing right, part of legend on obverse off planchet, otherwise good.
- 147 1787, The same, Liberty facing left, dates not visible, fair, 2 pieces.
- 148 — KENTUCKY cent, thin planchet, very good, scarce.
- 149 1783, NOVA CONSTELLATIO U. S. Caps, the S. large, very good.
- 150 1783, The same, but "S." in U. S. smaller, nearly fine.
- 151 1785, The same, "U. S." script type, only one "L" in Constellatio, double row of rays, very good.
- 152 1785, The same, two L's in Constellatio, fine.
- 153 1783 and 1785, The same, good, 5 pieces.
- 154 1787, FUGIO or FRANKLIN cent, the earliest authorized United States cent, uncirculated, traces of Mint color, slight flaws as usual in planchet.
- 155 1787, The same, good, 2 pieces.
- 156 1722, WOOD's half-penny, good.

- 159 1723, The same, dif. varieties, good, 3 pieces.

- 160 1724, The same, very fine, scarce.
 161 1723, WOOD'S farthing, very fine, rare.
 162 1773, VIRGINIA half-penny, uncirculated, nearly all Mint color.
 163 1773, The same, good, 3 pieces.
 164 1760, VOCE POPULI, letter "P" under head and in right field, good, varieties, 2 pieces.
 165 1787, AUCTORI PLEBIS, rev. female with lion, globe and anchor, very good for the piece, but head on obverse faint, rare.
 166 1785, CONNECTICUT cent, large head to right, very fine bold impression, planchet streaked, but not worn by circulation, has been cleaned bright.
 167 1785, The same, different, large African head, good.
 168 1785, The same, and two varieties of 1786 with heads to left, fair, dates visible, 3 pieces.
 169 1787, The same, all different varieties, fair to good, 7 pieces.
 170 1787, The same, different varieties, fair to good, 6 pieces.
 171 1788, The same, one with head to right, all different, poor to fair, 6 pieces.
 172 1781, NORTH AMERICAN token, Ships C. & C. U. S. flag. Columbia tokens, good to very fine, 6 pieces.

 176 — CONNECTICUT, Vermont, N. Jersey, Virginia, Wood's, Fugios, etc., poor to fair, 120 pieces.

[The following New Jersey coins are classified according to Dr. Maris' "Historic Sketch of the Coins of New Jersey." Particular attention is directed to Nos. 200, 203 and 204 on account of their beautiful state of preservation. These three coins Mr. Nealis was offered and refused $25 each. A number of others, although only fair or poor in condition, are of very great rarity.]

- 177 No. 2-B. MARK NEWBY or St. Patrick farthing, good, scarce.
 — The same, but the crown does not appear to be brass, and the whole piece of a different metal composition, good, scarce.
